

Clerk's Report for Feb 25

Playing Field:

- The signage for no motorised vehicles has been installed in the playing field.
- The trees near the playing field entrance are due to be planted on the 1st March.
- The goal posts are due to be re-installed on the 1st March.

Cemetery:

- The memorial testing has been undertaken.
- Notices have been placed in the Cemetery noticeboard.
- The order has been given for temporary stabilisation of the 6 memorials identified as being unstable.
- The benches in the Cemetery have been checked and one has been identified as in need of replacement.

General:

- Overflowing bins have been reported 4 times to Cornwall Council over the past month. The one outside the spar shop reported 3 times and the one outside the doctor's surgery once.
- Tree branches dumped in Hall Road play area were reported to Cornwall Council.
- A panel in the bus stop opposite the doctor's surgery has been removed, quotes are being sought to have this repaired.
- The responses for the Consultation into standards in Public Life has been submitted.
- A member of staff undertook a street clean following the recycling collection on the 14th February.
- No Parking sign for Enniscaven Bus Stop has been installed.
- Cornish Lithium have been contacted regarding a Japanese knotweed awareness sign found in Manson Place (removed from Trelavour Downs).
- Benches throughout the parish have been checked.
- The area at Freda's Triangle has been cleared by our staff in preparation for tree planting.
- QR stickers have been cleaned off the notice boards.